

FAQ for “Fundraising Support Program for Foreign Entrepreneurs”

Q 1 . What should I do first in order to receive support of this program?

A 1 . To receive support of this program, you must apply to Business Development Center Tokyo (hereinafter referred to as “BDCT”) and receive approval for your business plan from the Tokyo Metropolitan Government. (Certification is subject to review.)

At BDCT, you can receive support for writing business plans by experts.

Q 2 . If I have my business plan certified, am I sure to receive a loan in this program?

A 2 . When you apply for a loan, your application will be examined by the financial institutions handling your money after strictly verifying the conditions of the recipient through interviews, on-site inspections, and other means.

Therefore, there are cases your loan application may be denied, even if your business plan was certified by the Tokyo Metropolitan Government.

The financial institutions will continue to monitor the status of the businesses after the loans are provided.

Q 1 0 . Why does the Tokyo Metropolitan Government support foreign entrepreneurs?

A 1 0 . The Tokyo Metropolitan Government aims to realize entrepreneurship by various entities, including foreign nationals, in order to make Tokyo the most startup-friendly city in the world where new industries constantly emerge. As a part of this effort, we support foreign entrepreneurs in order to create an environment in which foreign nationals easily start businesses in Tokyo, thereby creating a diverse range of entities that will support Tokyo's economy and generating sustainable growth of Tokyo.

The Japanese government has also established the "Projects for Encouraging Foreign Entrepreneurs to Start Businesses", and the Japan Finance Corporation (JFC) provides support for foreign entrepreneurs through the "New Business Development Loans".
